THE INSECT 2011 IS ORGANIZED UNDER THE AUSPICES OF

Vienna University of Technology
Graz University of Technology
University of Vienna
Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf
Vrije Universiteit Brussels
Fraunhofer IKTS Dresden, Germany
Technische Universität Chemnitz, Germany

SPONSORING:

The Technopol Program Lower Austria is co-financed by the European Regional Development Fund (ERDF) of the European Union.

CONFERENCE LOCATION

Natural History Museum Vienna, Burgring 7,
A-1010, Vienna

The second conference day will be held at CEST, Wiener Neustadt. Bus transfer from the Natural History Museum to Wiener Neustadt and back to Vienna will be provided.

HOW TO REACH US

By plane:

All international flights arrive at Vienna International Airport (VIE). Trains run from the airport to Wien Mitte, from there take subway line U3 to Volkstheater, which is walking distance from the conference venue. Buses from the airport run to Vienna's city centre stopping at Morzinplatz/Schwedenplatz, from there take subway lines U1 and U3 via Stephansplatz to Volkstheater.

By train:

Wien Mitte is the closest train station to the conference place. International trains arrive at Wien Westbahnhof or Wien Meidling.

By subway/tram/bus:

Several public transport lines run to the conference venue, including subway lines U3 and U2, tram line 2 and bus line 2A.

INSECT 2011

International Symposium on ElectroChemical Machining Technology

First Announcement and Call for Papers

Vienna, November 3rd – 4th, 2011

GENERAL INFORMATION

The International Symposium on Electrochemical Machining Technology INSECT 2011 celebrates its 7th anniversary this year, and will be held in Vienna. Since the first conference in 2004 the INSECT has become a successful symposium for ECM technology.

This international symposium will serve as a platform for researchers and engineers involved in ECM technology. In addition to fundamental investigations of the electrode/electrolyte interface and applied material science, the focus will be on technical aspects like quality, efficiency and equipment development.

The conference language is English.

ADVISORY BOARD

- M. Baumgärtner, Leistritz Turbomaschinen Technik GmbH, Nürnberg, Germany
- M. Brussee, PEMTec SNC Forbach – Cedex, France
- J. Deconinck, Vrije Universiteit Brussel, Belgium
- J. Hackenberg, Robert Bosch GmbH, Schwieberdingen, Germany
- D. Lang, Plansee SE, Reutte, Austria
- M. M. Lohrengel, Heinrich-Heine-Universität Düsseldorf, Germany
- A. Michaelis, Fraunhofer IKTS Dresden, Germany
- B. Mollay, CEST Centre of Electrochemical Surface Technology, Austria
- M. Schneider, Fraunhofer IKTS Dresden, Germany
- A. Schubert, Technische Universität Chemnitz, Germany
- R. Schuster, Universität Karlsruhe, Germany
- G. Wittstock, Carl von Ossietzky Universität Oldenburg, Germany

TOPICS

- Fundamentals of ECM
- Materials, Electrolytes and Electrolyte Flow
- Techniques and Equipment
- Micro-ECM
- Simulation and Modelling
- Industrial Applications

CALL FOR PAPERS

Authors of conference papers are kindly requested to submit an abstract (max. 300 words, pdf or word file) by e-mail to insect2011@cest.at by no later than May 15th, 2011. Please underline the presenting author and add the complete address, phone and fax numbers as well as e-mail address. Abstracts will be reviewed by the advisory board by June 17th, 2011.

The organizing committee will provide the opportunity to publish the papers in the conference proceedings. All accepted authors will be asked to submit papers (max. 6 pages, DIN A5) by August 31st, 2011. Please refer to <http://www.cest.at/insect2011> for detailed instructions on preparing and submitting the manuscript. The proceedings will be handed out to all participants at the symposium.

Abstract submission deadline: May 15th, 2011
Acceptance notification: June 17th, 2011
Paper submission deadline: August 31st, 2011
Registration deadline: October 15th, 2011

REGISTRATION FEES

Regular Euro 280,-
Students Euro 80,-

The registration fee includes coffee, two lunches, the conference dinner, bus transfers and the conference proceedings. The dinner will take place at a first-class "Heurigen" with typical Viennese music. Furthermore, an exceptional museum walkabout and a guided city tour is included.

Students must show an adequate document at the conference desk. Please register by October 15th, 2011 at:

insect2011@cest.at

In case of your cancellation before October 15th, 2011 the total fee will be refunded. After that date, a refund is not possible.

TIME SCHEDULE

The symposium will start on Thursday, November 3rd at 9:00 a. m. and finish in the afternoon of November 4th, 2011.

HOTELS

CEST holds a block of rooms for the nights Wednesday, November 2nd until Friday, November 4th (2011) at the hotel Regina near to the conference place. When making your reservation, please give the keyword "INSECT 2011" in order to receive the special hotel rate (see, website).
